Evidence-Based Teaching: How to Develop, Deliver, and Evaluate Effective Substance Use Curricula: Reference List

Jason M. Satterfield, PhD
Professor of Clinical Medicine
University of California, San Francisco
References

References

Resources For Evidence-Based Teaching

• AERA – http://www.aera.net/default.aspx
  – American Education Research Association. A premier educational research organization with a robust annual meeting and online tools.

• AAMC – www.aamc.org
  – Association of American Medical Colleges. Special sections and curricular libraries under “Medical Education Portal” (MedEd Portal) and iCollaborative.

  – Family Medicine Digital Resource Library (part of the Society for Teachers of Family Medicine). Many teaching tools and curricular materials.

• NLN – http://www.nln.org/facultyprograms/teachingresources.htm
  – National League for Nurses. (Educational group for nursing faculty). Includes curricula and teaching tools